CHAPTER 140.

AN ACT to amend section 1263 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to damages on highways.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Limitations as to where highways may be laid out.

SECTION 1. Section 1263 of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1263. No public highway shall be laid out through or upon any orchard or garden or any building or fixture used for the purpose of trade or manufacture, when the damage caused thereby to such orchard, garden, building or fixture, exclusive of the damage to the land, shall exceed seventy-five dollars. Or through or upon any building, fixture, yard or inclosure used for educational or charitable purposes or through or upon any other building or fixture where the value of said building or fixture exceeds seventy-five dollars. Or through or upon the yard or inclosure necessary to the use or enjoyment thereof, without the consent of the owner, or through any cemetery without the consent of the trustees or other officers having the control or management thereof.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 8, 1899.
